The Peiham Bay sailors and the Armed Guard from the Brookiyn navy yard battled to a scoreless tie on the South Field gridiron yesterday afternoon. Peiham Bay looked like the better football team. It was the same powerful eleven which defeated the Granite State team last week. It battered and tore the Guard's line to pleces while the ball was in midfield, but at critical stages it incked the punch necessary to carry the ball over the goal line. The Peiham Tars were the aggressors at all stages of the contest and several times had the ball within striking distance of the Guards' line. But on each occasion the defence of the Guards stiftened, and with this brace came mediocre ened, and with this brace came mediocre playing by the gobs.

King Lear in Pelham's backfield played a spectacular game, and during the last few minutes of piay looked as if he were going to carry his team to victory. The old Villanovan got away for a twenty yard run around right end and carried the ball to the Guards 36 yard line. He followed this up with a dash through centre for sixteen yards. Ford then jammed his way through dash through centre for sixteen yards.

Ford then jammed his way through tackle for a gain of half a degen yards and a forward pass from Lear to Hagen put the ball on the Brooklyn team's Pelham Loses Ball.

There Pelham attempted a series of plunges through the line, but they gained little and the ball went to the Guards on their 6 yard line. Hamilton then kicked and the danger of Pelham scor-

Davis recovered Lear's fumble of a bad pass by Wakefield on Pelham's 35 yard line Three plunges against the line failed to gain a yard and the Guard attempted in forward pass. Lear intercepted it o his own 45 yard mark, but he wathrown out of bounds and fumbled the ball, Davis recovering it for the Guard ring the remainder of the session the ball remained in midfield.

In the fourth period the ball play practically was in midfield until Lear broke loose and led Pelham in the drive Interlake Association Announces and carried them to within a few yards of their object point.

While the game was fast and replete with prilliant plays there were many fumbles. The lineup:

refused to give ground further and two drop kicks failed by wide margins.

The Newporters had the advantage in the second half, and once after a pretty advance of forty-five yards put the ball in play for a first down on Humpkin's 10 yard line. The barrier was impenetrable, and the attempt to score by a drop kick was frustrated when forwards afted through and blocked the effort.

A blinding snow assailed the players and the shivering spectators in the third quarter of the game was finished with mixup:
